Risk Management Software

dwfgroup.com

Whatever the risks your business, employees, contractors, customers and other stakeholders face, our software is designed to help protect your business and reduce the total cost of risk by helping to prevent, mitigate and manage risks through to the resulting claims that may occur.

Our clients operate in all sectors of the economy including insurance; construction; energy and infrastructure; housing; manufacturing; public sector; professional services; retail and hospitality; sports and entertainment; tech, media and telecoms; and transport and logistics.

"After a meticulous selection process the EvoClaim solution now provides super-efficient claims management and has been developed into a full end-to-end insurance system that delivers sophisticated process automation, data enablement and digital capability."

Simon Wheeler, Managing Director
Agria Pet Insurance
